Happy Dollars

- Peter Einset visited the Canandaigua Rotary Club and they had a 17-year-old from Brazil who did an amazing job. He encouraged our club to encourage youngsters from other countries speak. He also felt the Mason's 250 presentation was a success on the 4th of July. He will be attending a class for a week in Ithaca on the Greek and Roman Technology. Also noted that he is for peace and against unjust wars.
- Jerry Forcier gave kudos to Phil Beckley for doing an amazing job with the Image committee and social media.
- Dave Cook shared his unfortunate happenings regarding his planned travel to Africa. After multiple flights cancelled and rescheduled, he ended up cancelling the trip altogether.
- Gary Adamson gave kudos to Mike and Dick for their presentation last week and thanked Susan Wertman for the cookies.
- Diana Perry was happy to see some people that she hasn't seen in a while.
- Susie Flick was sad that her boss is leaving.
- Ruthie Leo shared that her niece was visiting from Britain for a baby shower and also had her return flight cancelled, but was able to rebook and finally made it home.
- Johnny O was happy that the changeover went smoothly.
- Ethan Fogg encouraged folks to attend Seneca Falls Rotary on Tuesday at the Country Club.
- Santa Abraham was happy to be a part of the ribbon cutting at the Boy's and Girl's club for their new pavilion and happy that her cats are doing their job keeping mice away, but chipmunks? Not sure how it even got into the house.
- Norm Lee encouraged everyone to make up meetings missed. He has done the same for several years.

50/50: Stephanie Hesler won $37

Heart of Rotary Dave Cook had the winning ticket but did not find the Queen of Hearts. The pot continues to grow.

Program

Our Chief of Police, Ron Eveland was our speaker today. He comes from a long line of Police officers in his family. He shared that the biggest issue facing Geneva Police is recruitment and retention of officers. 35 of the Police in Geneva have less than 4 years' experience. The biggest problems Geneva faces currently drugs, crime and mental health. There is some gun violence but is typically associated with drugs. Sadly bail reform puts these criminals back on the street. In 2024 they were investigating 250 drug related issues and in 2025 that number increased to 450. Unfortunately, Police have gotten a bad rap from other areas in the country and that flows over into the residents of Geneva. He is trying to change that here by engaging the community

Respectfully submitted,
Linda Sutherland
